Hello families!

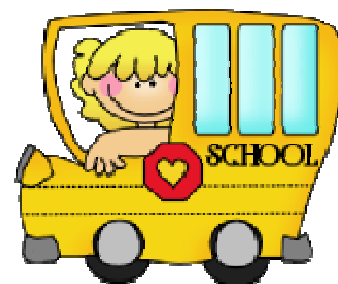

Monday we will have our spelling test with our words from last week. We will review them before hand. Because of this, we will push our regular spelling test this week to Friday. (No reading test).

Tuesday will be our Unit 2 Social Studies test that we have been preparing for and will continue to do so on Monday. We also have our Student of the Month assembly at 8:15am in the church hall.

Thursday and Friday we will be prepping for next weeks chapter 4 math test. I will send home a practice test for you to review with your child this week.

Our religion test will be on Friday as usual. Friday is Veterans Day. We will have our annual celebration at TBD.

Blessings,
 Mrs. Maisano

Snack

Please make sure your child brings a snack each day for recess. Snack is very important because without it students lose focus in school. Remember we are peanut free! Thank you in advance!

I will be emailing everyone with their dates and times for their scheduled parent/teacher conferences soon. I also have forms to hand out with the same information.
